SIMPLY SINATRA

a tribute starring Steve Lippia
and his 10 piece band

Steve Lippia is a singer's singer. He has quickly become one of this country's most prominent vocalists and interpreters of Classic pop music. His show is a rich, powerful celebration of some of the greatest music this country has known – Simply Sinatra.

With a hot, driving band behind him, Steve moves from crisp, popping swing tunes to lush, poignant ballads with equanimity. He possesses great stage presence – a charm and an ease that immediately endears audiences to him.

His natural sound and style is a remarkable combination of his own honest musical interpretation, combined with influences from some of the best singers of this era. It is immediately apparent that Steve's sound is reminiscent of the younger Sinatra, combined, perhaps, with that of Harry Connick, Jr. and Bobby Darin.

His singing reveals a man who truly understands a lyric, in a deeply personal way. Steve Lippia brings to life the music and lyrics of some of the greats such as Cole Porter, Harold Arlen, Sammy Cahn, Jimmy Van Heusen, and Rodgers and Hart. His repertoire includes such great standards as, "I've Got You Under My Skin", "The Lady Is A Tramp", "Mack The Knife", "Just The Way You Are", "That's Life", and many more .

"Steve Lippia gave an absolutely stunning performance, and we are still receiving calls from patrons who tell us
"Simply Sinatra" was the best symphony pops show they have seen"

*Saul Cline
Tacoma Symphony Orchestra*

"Steve Lippia has the kind of voice that you rarely hear any more:
he is cut from the same cloth as Mel Torme, Jack Jones, and Frank Sinatra."

Nicholas Palmer, Music Director Owensboro Symphony

"Steve Lippia's rich baritone voice prompted many in the audience to whisper to their neighbor, "He sounds just like Frank Sinatra."

*Timothy Guerther
